A rental purchase agreement is a lease not a credit sale. You may lease the item for the full term and acquire ownership or return it without penalty at any time. You may choose to payoff the agreement early, (before the final payment) and receive a substantial discount over the full term price. When the 120 or 180 days same as cash price period expires, The agreement becomes a traditional rent to own agreement. See store for full details. All items shown subject to availability, similar items may be substituted. Brands, styles and colors vary by location.
